Status of ratification of the Stockholm Convention

Note by the Secretariat

1. The text of the Stockholm Convention on Persistent Organic Pollutants was adopted at a Conference of Plenipotentiaries on 22 May 2001 in Stockholm. In accordance with its Article 26, the Convention entered into force on 17 May 2004, on the ninetieth day after the date of deposit of the fiftieth instrument of ratification, acceptance, approval or accession.
2. According to paragraph 2 of Article 26 of the Convention, “for each State or regional economic integration organization that ratifies, accepts or approves this Convention or accedes thereto after the deposit of the fiftieth instrument of ratification, acceptance, approval or accession, the Convention shall enter into force on the ninetieth day after the date of deposit by such State or regional economic integration organization of its instrument of ratification, acceptance, approval or accession”.
3. As of 11 April 2007, 143 States and one regional economic integration organization had ratified, accepted, approved or acceded to the Convention. On the date of the opening of the third meeting of the Conference of the Parties, the Convention will have entered into force for 138 Parties.
4. Information on the status of ratification and signature of the Convention is outlined in two annexes to the present note. Annex I lists the Parties to the Convention on the date of the opening of the third meeting of the Conference. Annex II shows in more detail the general situation with respect to signature and ratification of the Convention. The information presented in the annexes is based on information received from the Depositary of the Convention. The information provided in annex II is reproduced as published by the United Nations Office of Legal Affairs, acting on behalf of the Depositary, without formal editing by the Secretariat.
